

FAQs for Study in Malta

Malta is a member of both the European Union and the Commonwealth, and enjoys close ties with the UK. It is a member of the European Higher Education Area. Malta is one of the safest countries in the world. It is a wonderful study abroad destination for students and although it is European country, English is one of the official languages and most of the people speak in English and hence it attracts many people.

When student decides to study in Malta, they generally have a lot of questions and we have answer to all, few of them are listed below to clear out your questions also:

1)How much does it cost to study in Malta?

The general course range for master start with 6K Euros/annum tuition fees and in addition to that the average living cost in Malta ranges from 300 to 700 Euros depending upon the location you choose as your study destination.

2)Is Malta good for study?

Studying abroad can be difficult for students who feel nervous about living in unfamiliar surroundings for an extended period of time. For students who might not be comfortable in a wholly alien environment, Malta is a wonderful destination. Not only is it an English-speaking country (Maltese and English are the nation's official languages), students and expatriates from all over the world live on the island, making it highly diverse and welcoming. English-speaking students are able to communicate with the locals easily and navigate the island efficiently. Even the climate of Malta is same as India, which makes it more comfortable to stay. Also it is largely crime free and also known as one of the safest destination of Europe.

You can even go through below link for more details about studying in Malta :
<https://www.edugoabroad.com/study-in-malta/>

3)Can I work and study in Malta?

As a student every country gives 20 hours of permissible working hours of any student.